WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THINK ALONE.
O heart of mine!
Remember me
As giving all
My heart to thee;
In storm or shine,
Or any stress,
Thou mayest call
For my career
Unflinchingly.
For all I am is thine,
My own,
Is thine alone?
O lover true!
Remember me,
And know that I
Would die for thee
To so renew
Thy best estate
Or forestall thy
Unhappy fate
Thus easily;
For all my life is thine,
My own,
Is thine alone!
My life! My love!
Remember me!
My all thou art,
Unceasingly,
And if to prove
Devotion sure,
We twain apart,
Must life endure—
Joy with thee!
For all my joy is thine,
My own,
Is thine alone.

They were evidently of some foreign specie, as Mr. Rudy had never seen anything like them before.

ON THE RIVER MAP

Maysville Will Now Have a Daily River and Rain Report

Colonel S. S. Bassler, Local Forecast Observer for the Middle West, with headquarters at Cincinnati, was here yesterday in the interest of establishing a rain and river reporting station.

He has just established one at Pikeville, on the Big Sandy river, and at Farmers, on the Licking.

All will be reported daily at 7 a. m. by telegraph code to the main office at Cincinnati.

This is a longfelt want and one that will bring Maysville into prominence as a point on the Ohio river, and it will be of great benefit to the lumber and coal interests.

TELEPHONE No. 43. G. W. GEISEL, OPPOSITE OPERA-HOUSE.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it. HAVE THE DAVIS PRINTING HOUSE PRINT IT. PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING.

Mr. Joseph Kaine wishes to give warning through the columns of THE LEDGER to all whom it may concern not to issue marriage license to Frank Cooper and Emma Kaine, the latter being a minor.

ABRAHAM YAZELL.

Abraham Yazell died at his home on the Mt. Carmel pike, a short distance from this city, yesterday morning about 8 o'clock.

He was 50 years of age and surviving him are his wife and eight children—Misses Anna, Agnes, Rosa and Minnie, and Messrs. George, Frank, Samuel and William Yazell, all of this county.

The funeral took place at 9 o'clock this morning from St. Patrick's Church, the Rev. P. M. Jones conducting the services.

Interment in the Cemetery at Washington.

MRS. MARGARET PHISTER.

Mrs. Margaret Phister, widow of the late Charles Phister, died Sunday morning at the home of her son, Mr. Walter B. Phister, in Chicago, death resulting from sclerosis of the arteries, after a month's illness.

Mrs. Phister was born in Maysville in 1828 and was a daughter of the late Morris A. and Evaline Campbell Hutchins.

Mr. Phister passed away last September, and of their four children, only one son, Mr. Walter B. Phister of Chicago, survives.

Mrs. Phister leaves one brother, Judge M. C. Hutchins of this city, and two sisters—Mrs. Eva Johnson of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Julia Stewart of Chicago.

The remains arrived here this morning and the funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Third Street M. E. Church, Mrs. Phister having long been one of the most faithful members of that Church.

The services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Hanford of Augusta, assisted by Rev. M. A. Banker, and the interment will be in Maysville Cemetery.

NEVER LOVED HER!

Maysville Husband Thus Writes to His Deserted Wife

The following letter was handed THE LEDGER by the aggrieved party for publication. It is self explanatory—

MAYSVILLE, KY., June 13th, 1904.

Miss Annie L. Daniel—Dear Friend: It is with tearful eyes that I write you these few lines to let you know the truth that I have long kept back from you. I do not love you, nor never did. I thought I did when I married you, but I was badly mistaken. I have lived with you almost a year trying to love you, but cannot, so as you know it is better for you and I both to be away from each other. Annie, do not blame any one for this but me; I am all to blame. Of course you would have found it out some day, so let come what will, I have told you the truth. Well, Annie, I wish you all the good luck in the world while I cannot live with you. Annie, you take what belongs to you and leave the rest; I will sell it and pay what I owe, and if there is anything left I will send it to you. I know you are sick, but I hope you will get well soon and live a life of peacefulness and happiness.

Annie, I will send you money whenever I can if I live. Well, I will close. Wishing you all the good luck in the world, I am still your friend, L. L. DANIEL.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Linen Suitings at 50c Yd

The web of this attractive material for tub frocks is white linen. The warp is colored cotton producing an effect of delicate Chambray weave. On a clear colored surface of blue, pink, tan, reseda, raspberry or gray are charming jacquard figures in white between corded stripes. Other patterns show colored figures on white stripes or colored stripes on white grounds—about 15 charming designs in all. The fabric launders perfectly and it is needless to tell discerning women how linen endures wear and tear.

ONE of the prominent business men of the city, within a stone's throw of The Bulletin's thinktorum, will be one of four to take the Hunter lot off Uncle Sam's hands in case the Public Building is not located there.

A MEMBER of one of the leading business firms of the city, within a stone's throw of The Ledger sanctum, stands ready to get up a petition in favor of the Hunter lot as the location for the Public Building.—Evening Bulletin.

Does he, too, admit the defeat of Judge PARKER?

STRANGE things happen at Democratic Conventions—and according to "yellow" newspapers. Senator DANIELS, who is in the best of health at his home in Danville, Va., denies positively that he is dangerously ill in St. Louis.

EXPORTERS of gold always prefer to ship in bars rather than coin, simply because of the greater subjection of coin to abrasion in transit. They cannot be packed as closely as bars. It is said that $1,000,000 in American eagles may show as great a loss as $100 from abrasion in being carried from New York to Paris.

It's a mighty poor lawyer who can't make his side of the case appear to be the right one. Hence Judge LEWIS McQUOWN's page-and-a-half answer to the McClure Magazine article on the Caleb Powers trials, printed in The Courier-Journal, must be regarded solely as an effort to sustain his position as one of the hired counsel in the case.

Athens, Greece, is soon to be connected with Paris by railway. The Grecian Government has already secured the building of a road to the Turkish frontier, which will soon be connected with the railway system of Europe.

Would you think that a man who stood on the street corners and preached against the sewer bond issue, and who voted against it, would accept a job on the big tobacco warehouse, the building of which was contingent on the construction of the sewer?

Be assured, gentlemen, that THE LEDGER won't be so "awfully" inconvenienced by the location of the Public Building on an out-of-town lot—even on the Hunter lot, with its manufactured street terminating in a frog pond. This location will be within comparatively easy reach of The Ledger office; but it is the inconvenience to the other business interests of the city that has induced the protest against the designated location. If they now sit quietly by and see the thing accomplished, they should receive little sympathy when they squirm under the disadvantages that will surely follow.

THERE'S comfort in this Church, anyhow. Anxious for men and boys to keep cool while attending summer services at the Bethany Baptist Church, Camden, N. J., the Rev. R. D. MINCH, the Pastor, has written the following on the Church bulletin board:

WE SEEK YOUR COMFORT.
SCREENS, FANS AND SHORT HOURS.
Leave your hats, coats and baggage at home and keep cool.

Here's one Parson, at least, who has a fine consideration for the comfort of his congregation; and the "short hours" clause might be adopted with great advantage by some of the Maysville Pastors.

Paris Green That Kills.

Many imagine that all Paris Green is of equal potency. This is not the case. Analysis of samples from various makers shows that some have more than twice the strength of others. You have perhaps observed evidence of this in the failure of an application of Paris Green to your tobacco plants to rid them of worms as it should. We guarantee the strength and effectiveness of the Paris Green we sell. The manufacturers have a reputation for the high and uniform excellence of their product. There's economy in using this Paris Green; it goes farther and always does the work.

There was a hold-up last night underneath the viaduct crossing in Bridge street. The victim was a colored man and the footpads were two white men. The colored man lost a watch and some money. Spence Walker and wife were on their way home and heard and witnessed part of the outrage. This is the point THE LEDGER suggested the propriety of placing a light.

Instantly Relieved by Baths with Cuticura Soap

And Gentle Applications of Cuticura Ointment.

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, and purest of emollients, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent.

"My niece's little baby boy, two years old, was so badly afflicted with eczema that he needed constant watching. It was all over his face and he scratched the sores constantly. Mornings his clothes would be stained with blood, and his face and hands would be covered. His family never could take him out, as his face was always full of large sores. They had medical treatment, and tried everything they heard of. She commenced using the Cuticura Remedies last spring and found that at last she had a wonderful healer. The sores left his face and he was entirely cured, and now his face is as smooth and rosy as though no sore had ever been there to mar it."

RIGHT SORT OF TALK

There's Too Much "Red Tape" in Our Public Institutions

In Cincinnati a few days ago a blind man and his wife—aged, well-dressed, educated, and with ample means to pay all demands—applied to half a dozen hotels and were refused accommodations; and then, under the escort of an officer, they made the rounds of all the "public charities," including the City Hospital, with no more success, until finally the officer was obliged to shelter them in the Police Station as though they were criminals!

Of this circumstance, the writer of "Notes and Comment" in The Commercial Tribune says: "After reading the account in yesterday's Commercial Tribune about the forced wanderings of a blind man and his wife one is compelled to blush for our general system of charities, which is so strictly hedged about with 'rules and regulations' that the real needy, at least in this case, are compelled to lodge in a station-house or in a house of detention. It is all wrong and all the excuses in the world will not convince me to the contrary."

"The hotels, in all probability, are altogether justified. We know that they are crowded, and in addition we know that the blind are not excluded if they have money to foot the necessary bill. After that this couple, clean, well educated, and with money, went from place to place and yet they found no shelter. Homeless and friendless in a big city, they were at last compelled to play the role of criminals, to stand separation and to roll and toss in discomfort until the dawn of day."

"And here let me say, the Elks is not distinctively a charitable organization and there is talk of putting its property on the tax duplicate. Yet if this blind and friendless couple had dropped into Elks Headquarters on Friday night you can bet your existence they would have found shelter, even if one of the Elks had been compelled to send them to his own home in a cab. And more than that, no mention of it would have been made."

"Far be it from me to blame the general run of charities. They are grand organizations, but for humanity's sake do away with red tape and iron-clad rules when cases like this come before you. I don't care whether the couple were man and wife or not; they were blind, they were helpless, they were friendless and they were in a strange city. They should have been taken in, even if the employee who violated a rule was discharged the next day. Public opinion would have forced his reinstatement. Do good and take chances."

Twenty or more people were killed and about twenty-five injured in a collision between a passenger train and a freight at Glenwood, twenty-three miles South of Chicago, on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad. Mrs. Hughson, of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was fitful, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be."

MRS. M. E. HUGHSON, 347 East Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells How Ordinary Tasks Produce Displacements. Apparently trifling incidents in woman's daily life frequently produce displacements of the womb. A slip on the stairs, lifting during menstruation, standing at a counter, running a sewing machine, or attending to the most ordinary tasks may result in displacement, and a train of serious evils is started.

The first indication of such trouble should be the signal for quick action. Don't let the condition become chronic through neglect or a mistaken idea that you can overcome it by exercise or leaving it alone.

More than a million women have regained health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for her advice, and a few timely words from her will show you the right thing to do. This advice costs you nothing, but it may mean life or happiness or both.

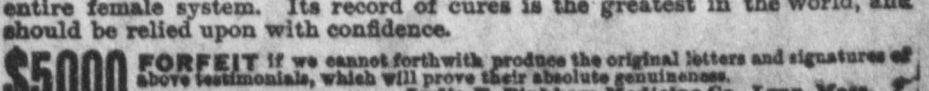

Mrs. Lelah Stowell, 177 Wellington St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—You are indeed a godsend to women, and if they all knew what you could do for them, there would be no need of their dragging out miserable lives in agony."

"I suffered for years with bearing-down pains, womb trouble, nervousness, and excruciating headache, but a few bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made life look new and promising to me. I am light and happy, and I do not know what sickness is, and I now enjoy the best of health."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can always be relied upon to restore health to women who thus suffer. It is a sovereign cure for the worst forms of female complaints,—that bearing-down feeling, weak back, falling and displacement of the womb, inflammation of the ovaries, and all troubles of the uterus or womb. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in the early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. It subdues excitability, nervous prostration, and tones up the entire female system. Its record of cures is the greatest in the world, and should be relied upon with confidence.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

They extend an invitation to the Editor, Mr. Davis, and in honor of his presence he shall be treated to icecream and the favorite cake, if it is "angel food."
The sudden death of Mrs. J. R. Beach of Felicity, O., on last Wednesday was a shock to the community there, as well as to Elder T. P. Degman, who was called to conduct the funeral service on Friday, July 15th, at the Christian Church at Felicity—a waiting palace for the remains of an angel. The many floral designs only partly told of the high esteem in which this lovely young Christian lady stood. The Oddfellows, of which Mr. Beach is a member, were all in their places in honor of Mr. Beach. Thus another heart is sadder, but angels are gladder, for "none knew her but to love her, none spoke of her but to praise."

A whisky stomach makes a foul mouth.
The Christian Church is quenching the thirst of its Sunday-school scholars during the sultry weather with cool and delicious lemonade. This is a pleasing innovation and greatly appreciated by the little folks.
Dr. Louis Marshall is practicing medicine at Washington. His name recalls to the older inhabitants the circumstance that there was a Dr. Louis Marshall there at an early day—a brother of Chief Justice Marshall, one of the brightest scholars in the state.
ENFORCE THE LAW
Have Citizens Any Rights on Sidewalks of the Town?
Residents of East Forest avenue request THE LEDGER to call attention of the powers that be in municipal affairs to the fact that bicyclists have taken possession of the cinder walks in that part of the city's domain for their own exclusive use and greatly to the discomfort and peril of pedestrians.
It was only the other day that a small car was knocked down and escaped serious injury by a miracle by one of these reckless wheelmen who was speeding his machine on the cinder walk.
A good stiff fine would cure these gentlemen of their persistence in ignoring the plain rights of pedestrians.
A word to the wise is sufficient, and it is hoped these violators are of that class.
